60th Firefighter I Academy

August 26, 2013 – January 16, 2014
Questionnaire for Academy Success

The Fire Academy is very rigorous and challenging and it is a rewarding accomplishment to complete the program. The Academy staff wants you to be successful in achieving your career goals. This questionnaire is designed to assist you in determining your suitability for Academy success and provides further insight for the training expectations.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Together with your spouse/partner and/or family members, answer the following questions to help determine if you are ready to undertake the demands of the Fire Academy training.

1. Do you have all of the necessary finances in order? Refer to the program cost information. An estimated $4299 will be needed prior to the start of the academy. Don't forget the added expenses for living, food, rent, etc.

2. Are you physically ready? At minimum, you should be able to run 1.5 miles within 15 minutes without stopping (six laps around a football field track); perform at least 20 regular push-ups without stopping (not on your knees); perform 25 sit-ups without stopping (knees bent, strict form); and complete one unassisted complete pull-up (hands shoulder-width apart, chin over the bar).

3. Are you academically prepared? Have you taken college-level courses in the past? The Academy is 29 units of college-level work compacted into only 19 weeks of instruction; the pace is extremely quick. Do you have excellent study habits and exceptional test-taking skills? There are 50 different written and online examinations during the Academy and each must be passed with a minimum score of 80%.

4. Are you able to follow directions and take orders without feeling the need to question? The Academy is operated in a para-military manner; orders are given which must be followed without hesitation or complaint. Correctly following the instructions in this application is your first example to staff!

5. Are you able to remain calm under high stress situations? Instructors will test your ability to think quickly on your feet, follow directions, and respond calmly under emotionally tense conditions.

6. Do you get along well with others? Can you accept criticism from your peers? People who do not work well in a group setting generally find the Academy environment difficult.

7. Can you devote at least three hours each night to study and preparations? There is considerable homework and prep time needed during the Academy.

8. Can you set aside personal business for the duration of the Academy? Good attendance is essential for success. This will impact your family life. Outside employment during the Academy, including weekend or part-time, takes needed time from study and rest and is therefore strongly discouraged.

9. Do you have the full support of your family and are they willing to assist you with your training? Past experience has shown that strong family support is a critical factor in success. Family members can help with your studies and uniform preparation, which can greatly improve your performance.

10. Do you have adequate health insurance to cover any possible injuries during your training? Student insurance plans are available through Butte College Health Services.

NOTE: If you answered “no” to any of these questions, you should contact the Fire Academy office for further advice.

Fire Academy Admissions Policy

Selection of Fire Academy cadets is based on a defined and consistent process to ensure fairness for all applicants. This process is outlined as follows:

To begin the application process, all initial applicants must complete the “PRE-ENROLLMENT” steps outlined in the "INFORMATION SHEET" and meet all deadlines. All required materials must be received on or before the date specified and ALL applicants must attend a mandatory orientation meeting. It is the responsibility of each applicant to meet the deadlines.

All qualified applicants’ names are then entered into the computer-based lottery to be randomly selected and ranked. The first 50 selections will be sent notices informing them that they have been chosen to enroll into the Fire Academy. Applicants who rank above 50 (for example, 51, 52, etc.) will be placed on a waiting list in the order of their ranking. In the event there is a withdrawal from any applicant in the first 50 selections, the next ranked applicant will be notified and permitted to proceed with the application process. It is recommended that those on the waiting list be prepared, should they be notified of a vacancy and given permission to continue the application process.

All applicants that have been selected to continue the process must then complete the “ENROLLMENT” steps and meet all deadlines. This includes the payment of fees by the specified date. Failure to do so will disqualify them from entering the academy and the next available applicant will be notified of a vacancy.

All persons who are not selected on their first application attempt may reapply for admission to the next successive academy with the opportunity for their name to be entered twice in the lottery. Those who have applied to the academy two consecutive times without success, and apply for a third consecutive time will be automatically accepted into that third academy without going through the lottery process.

Persons who have been accepted into the academy but choose to decline the offer, and at a later date wish to attend, will be required to reapply as though applying for the first time.

All students who become physically injured during attendance in the academy and are in good standing may request an “incomplete” grade to withdraw from the academy and be automatically accepted in the subsequent academy. The student, however, must obtain a physician’s statement on letterhead that he or she has sustained injuries that preclude the completion of the academy. If the student reapplies, acceptance into the next academy will be based on a medical release from a physician to confirm that the student is fit for the academy. All returning students will re-enter the academy at a point determined by the fire academy staff and director.

Academic failure, failure to complete other academy requirements, or violations of the Cadet Manual that result in dismissal do not permit a student to reapply to the academy with added names to the lottery. Provided the student is permitted to reapply, reapplication will begin as though the student was applying for the first time.

There are no exceptions to any of the steps specified in this document. Failure of mail or courier services to deliver documents on time does not excuse the deadline. Please plan accordingly.
