An opportunity to share ideas
Partnerships offer faculty, classified and management staff the opportunity to share ideas on classroom teaching and the work environment, and to improve skills, enhance knowledge, explore issues, and increase collegiality.

Participation in several partnerships, stipends, and Flex credit

- Classified and management staff and non-teaching faculty may participate in two partnerships per academic year for the stipend.
- Associate faculty may earn a minimum of three and up to ten hours of flex credit per partnership, or once each semester earn $50 for a partnership.
- Full-time faculty receive a minimum of three and up to ten hours flex credit per partnership with no maximum number of partnerships for the year.

The $50 stipends are limited to a fund cap of $1,000 for the 2012-13 academic year.

Up to five can form a partnership.

A partnership group with 2-5 members can be created. Partnerships may be formed between any combination of faculty, classified and management staff members.

- All members of a Partnership group must be present for group sessions to fulfill the requirements of the program.
- A minimum of three hours of partnership sessions are required and the sessions cannot take place in one three-hour block.
- A record of these meetings must be kept by all participants.

If you are an associate faculty, non-teaching faculty, or classified and management staff and wish to receive the stipend please call or email Professional Development to obtain confirmation that the $1,000 Partnership Program fund cap has not yet been reached. Once the cap is reached, no cash stipends will be available.

How to form a partnership:

Step One—The first step establishes the partnership and informs the Professional Development Office of its existence.

Step Two—“Tracking the Partnership”, keeps an ongoing record of the meeting dates, time spent, and the content and value of the discussions. Each partner must complete and sign this form.
