4. Reports

Academic Senate President's Report – Irma Gonzalez Cuadros
Academic Senate President Gonzalez Cuadros reported that the Academic Senate made several committee appointments as well as approving the charter and bylaws for the Distance Education Committee and the Academic Technology Committee. The Senate also approved a revision to the Syllabus Guidelines document for both in-person and online courses. Academic Senate President Gonzalez Cuadros reported that the Academic Senate also considered several APs. She concluded by reporting that the Senate will hold orientation for new and returning senators as well as for members of Academic Senate standing committees on August 19.

Classified Senate President's Report – Alan Burwell
Classified Senate President Burwell reported that the Classified Senate recently certified its election results and swore in elected senators. The Senate also recently elected its executive board with members serving one-year terms. Classified Senate President Burwell reported that the Classified Senate retreat is tentatively scheduled for July 16. He also reported that the Coffee and Scantrons event was very successful; thanks to the Butte College Foundation, the Senate is looking into developing ongoing fundraising strategies to support the event. Classified Senate President Burwell reported that Classified Professionals' Day will not be held August 6 due to operational constraints; the planning committee is looking at a date in late July. He concluded his report by presenting the spirit stick that the Butte College team won at the Classified Leadership Institute.

Superintendent/President's Report – Virginia Guleff
Superintendent/President Guleff started her report by thanking the Commencement Committee for an excellent event. She reported that 507 graduates walked across the stage; the youngest was 15 years old and the most senior was 66 years old.

Superintendent/President Guleff also reported on recent community and government engagement. She met with the area representative from Senator Adam Schiff's Office; he supports the creation and expansion of noncredit workforce training pathways. Superintendent/President Guleff also gave a presentation about Butte College to Durham Rotary, as well as meeting with Audrey Taylor and Dr. Robert Eyler as part of the Chico Economic Vitality Strategy Project. She also visited Amazon Web Services in Seattle, WA, with the Digital Center.

Superintendent/President Guleff concluded by reporting that the college's new web site is now live and thanked the Web Steering Committee for their hard work. Finally, she was notified that the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges accepted the college's Midterm Report.

Board Comments
Board President Blacklock reported that he attended approximately 10 certificate and graduation celebrations this year. Trustee Massa reported that there are two bill moving through the legislature that would make it easier for community colleges to offer bachelor's degrees. Board Vice President Nock reported that he had the honor of participating in commencement and various graduation celebrations. He also offered some reflections on safety and preparedness. Trustee

Boeger reported that the college is in the best shape it has been in for a number of years and announced that he will not be seeking re-election in the fall. Trustee Krepelka told a story about his son's employment at Amazon and their philosophy of putting customers first, similar to Butte College's "students first" philosophy. Trustee McGinnis offered kudos to Butte College nurses.
